The artist Zsuzsa Szvath achieves a creative unique position with her impressive, metaphorical image worlds and peculiarly surreal scenes. She is concerned with the search for lost values and emotions. Primordial trust.

In her new series of works, "A period of change", one or at most two protagonists are present in unmistakably floating landscapes or urban scenes in bizarre circumstances. Quiet restlessness bubbles out of the painting background while the mostly young people portrayed display perfect calm and unconcern.

Cristina Streckfuß, Curator and communication expert
